KYC Compliance Policy

Section 1: Customer Identification Program (CIP)

1.1 All financial institutions must implement a Customer Identification Program (CIP) as part of their anti-money laundering (AML) compliance program. The CIP must include procedures for verifying the identity of each customer opening an account.

1.2 Minimum identification requirements shall include:
- Full legal name
- Date of birth (for natural persons)
- Address (residential or business)
- Government-issued identification number

Section 2: Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD)

2.1 Enhanced Due Diligence measures must be applied to high-risk customers, including:
- Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs)
- Customers from high-risk jurisdictions
- Complex ownership structures
- Unusual transaction patterns

2.2 EDD procedures shall include obtaining senior management approval for establishing business relationships with high-risk customers.

Section 3: Ongoing Monitoring

3.1 Continuous monitoring of customer transactions must be conducted to detect suspicious activities.

3.2 The institution shall maintain transaction monitoring systems capable of detecting patterns indicative of money laundering or terrorist financing.

Section 4: Record Keeping

4.1 All customer identification records must be maintained for a minimum of five years from the date the account is closed.

4.2 Transaction records must be maintained for five years from the date of the transaction.

Section 5: Reporting Obligations

5.1 Suspicious Transaction Reports (STRs) must be filed with the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) within the prescribed timeframe.

5.2 Cash Transaction Reports (CTRs) must be filed for all cash transactions exceeding the prescribed threshold.
